Sir,

FOOD PRODUCTION: South Kanara district--Puttur taluk--Koila village--formation of a co-operative land colonisation society--resurvey work--appointment of a Deputy Surveyor for 2 months--proposals--submitted.

It has been proposed to organise a co-operative Land Colonisati society in Koila village of Puttur taluk of this district. The preliminary survey conducted by the District Surveyor South Kanara showed that most of the theodolite stones on the boundary between Koila and Alankar villages are missing and that the recorded measurements for such of the stones as are now available on ground, do not agree with the actual measurements obtained by him. Consequently the entire area has to resurveyed carefully and the work involved is extremely heavy. The ~~wok~~ work cannot also be postponed. The existing Survey staff will not be able to attend to this resurvey work, including the refixing of the Village boundary marks etc. Sanction may, therefore, be accorded for the appointment of one Deputy Surveyor for a period of 2 months, with 4 coolies for 20 days a month for 2 months, i.e for 40 days in all, and, 40 additional coolies for 4 days only for line-clearance for theodolite work. The financial implication of the establishment proposed for sanction works out to Rs.873-12-0 as detailed below:-

Pay etc of one Deputy Surveyor for 2 months - Pay at Rs.60/-; Dearness allowance at Rs.22/- and Fixed travelling allowance at Rs.34-14-0- per month.	Rs.233-12-0
coolies for 40 days at Rs.2/- per cooly per day.	Rs.320-0-0
0 coolies for 4 days at Rs.2/-per cooly per day.	Rs.320-0-0
Total

M' overleaf The formulation of 'Land Colonisation Schemes for the landless men and the civilians (ex-Servicemen) discharged from ex-Service units by the R.C.S. has been restricted to six in number for 1951-52. No info. has so far been received from the R.C.S that a scheme for the Kuila Village in the S. Kanara Dt. is being prepared by him.

The sanction for the employment of a special staff for survey of a block of land proposed by the Coll. for Colonisation has to be accorded in Rev. Dept. This may be transferred to Rev. Dept for necessary action
